"Still Hard to Tell" About Farm Policies

WASHINGTON, (UP) — President Allan B. Kline of the American Farm Bureau Federation says it's "still a little hard to tell" where the two presidential candidates stand on farm policy, but he is hoping to learn from their approaching major speeches.

The farm leader, interviewed Sunday night on the Columbia Broadcasting System's Man of the Week television program, said both Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Republican and Democratic presidential candidates, are "more cautious than I would like to see them" on the issue of farm price supports.

Phillies Close In On Braves In Three-I Loop

BY UNITED PRESS

Terre Haute closed in on the skidding Evansville Braves today in the battle for the Three-I league pennant as the chase went into the final week.

The Phillies were only a length and a half behind the Braves after Terre Haute won Sunday night while Evansville lost. It was the second straight night for the combination and moved Terre Haute up in contention.

Third-place Burlington cracked Evansville again, taking a 5 to 4 decision in 12 innings. Burlington scored three runs in the top of the 12th to go ahead 5 to 2, but had to choke off a two-run Evansville rally to get the victory.

At the same time Terre Haute clipped cellar-dwelling Quincy again, 10 to 4. Both teams clubbed 10 hits, but six Quincy errors made the difference.

A wide-open second division scramble for fourth place and a spot in the playoffs continued. Waterloo slipped another notch nearer the second division by losing to Keokuk 9 to 6 as the Kernels moved within one and one-half games of the fourth-place White Hawks. Davenport swept a twin bill from Cedar Rapids 4 to 1 and 3 to 2 to move into a fifth place tie with Keokuk.

Tonight's Game. Tonight Waterloo hopes to bolster its fourth place hold against Quincy, while Davenport is host to Cedar Rapids, Burlington plays at Terre Haute and Keokuk is at Evansville.

Butter - Fingers!

NEW YORK, (UP) — The Indians and Pirates were the worst offenders among 13 "butter-fingered" major league clubs that committed a total of 41 errors Sunday.

Cleveland made seven bobbles including three by Luke Easter in its 16-inning setback by the Senators, while Pittsburgh was charged with six errors in losing the second game of a doubleheader to the Braves.

The Giants, Cards, Cubs and Browns each made three miscues in a single game. Only the Red Sox, Tigers and Dodgers played errorless ball in Sunday's 13-game program.

Prison Saints Club Farm Bureau, 9-1

The Prison Saints racked up their thirteenth win Sunday when they clubbed the Des Moines County Farm Bureau nine into submission by the score of 9-1.

George Sahlie went the route for the prisonment, allowing five hits. Red Lair hit for the circuit and Cliff Davis pounded out two round trippers.

The Farm Bureau scored their only run in the fourth when Lundeen was hit by a pitched ball and scored on singles by Wallman and Vance.

The Saints scored three in both the second and third innings, one in the fourth and two in the fifth.

Turnesa, Clark In Playoff For Fort Wayne Crown

FORT WAYNE, Ind., (UP) — PGA Champion Jim Turnesa and latecomer Jimmy Clark met in a playoff match today to erase their tie and determine who takes lion's winnings in the $15,000 Fort Wayne Open golf tournament.

They pushed the third annual Open into an "overtime" session when both carded four-round totals of 272. They'll divide $4,200 after this afternoon's 18 holes, the victor becoming $2,400 richer.

Clark, 34-year-old Laguna Beach, Calif., entry, moved up in a hurry from fourth to top spot with 34-33 Sunday. His 272 grand total was 16 under par.

Turnesa carded 35-34, staying the running when, on the 18th, he chipped up to about six feet from the hole and sank it for the tie, then the fourth-and-supposedly final-round opened, Turnesa held a two-stroke advantage.

Third money went to Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill. He was nine under par after 14 holes, but tightened up when the crowd moved in on him. Three bogies left him with a 66 and a 273 grand total, good enough for $1,400.

On down the line it was Fred Haas, New Orleans, La., and Julius Boros, Mid-Pines, N. C., 274's, Jack Burke, Jr., Houston, Tex., 275; Gary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn., Lawson Little, Pebble Beach, Calif., and Dave Douglas, Newark, Del., 277's.

The amateur leaders also finished in a tie and will precede the pros in their playoff. Sam O'Neill, Crawfordsville, Ind., and Dr. Wendell Aldrich, Angola, Ind., each carded 294.

FBI Refuses Comment On Kiner Threat

PITTSBURGH, —(UP) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation today refused comment on an investigation of a $6,200 extortion plot aimed at the Pittsburgh Pirates' slugging outfielder, Ralph Kiner.

The home run king also was directed not to comment on the case, in which an anonymous writer threatened Kiner's life if he did not deliver the money to a suburban school early Saturday morning of last week.

An FBI agent, posing as the handsome slugger, kept the appointment while other agents lurked in the shadows, but the extortionist failed to appear.

Very Nervous

Although the Pirate outfielder said he was very nervous while playing Saturday against the Brooklyn Dodgers, he cracked out his 27th home run and then Sunday hit No. 28 in the first game of a double-header with the Boston Braves.

Forbes Field bleacher fans received a scare shortly before game time Sunday when a prankster threw a firecracker onto the playing field, near Kiner's position. However, "Mr. Slug" was in the dugout at the time.
